Today we are here to deliver a service the entrepreneurs of this town, those that don't let opportunity slide and want to take charge of their finances in spite of the employment crisis.

I would like to commend the Local Economic Development section headed by Mr Brian Xaba for working well with the Uthukela district municipality who is responsible for these stalls all along Lyell street. All 30 of these stalls will be used effectively.

The informal traders who will benefit from these stalls will be from the Alfred Duma Local Municipality and I would like to convey gratitude on their behalf.

We thank the Uthukela district municipality for erecting and funding the steel stalls. We know that the wooden ones possessed a lot of safety implications and we are hoping that these will be very useful to the entrepreneurs.

Sibonga kakhulu kubobonke abadlale indima ekutheni lezikhungu zokudayisela zigcine zisebenzile. Sibonge singumasipala ukusebenzisana kahle nezinhlanga ezahlukene zosomabhizinisi abancane.
